A VICTIM OF SPEAKING TUBES.

Sad Fate of a Man of Peace Who Is Situated Midway on a Vocal Route.

There is a man in this town whose work keeps him sitting at his desk all day. He thinks himself fortunately situated, for his employers are considerate in their requirements and liberal in the matter of pay, and his work is enjoyable. The others who work in the same room are busy men. They seldom speak, but when they do have something to say it is of a pleasant nature. His modest home has been all that heart could wish, so far as comfort and contentment go. All these things are sources of grateful satisfaction to him, for he is a man of middle age and is no longer consumed by youthful ambition to pose the unattainable. He is of a placid disposition and is, above everything else, a lover of peace. Thus situated he ought to be one of the happiest of men, but he is not. He is wasting away, the helpless victim of continuous and violent contention.

Close to his desk, inclosed by a thin wooden sheathing, are some tin speaking tubes that run from an upper story of the building to a lower story. These stories contain departments of the same business, and the tubes are in almost constant use. The tubes are cracked at about the altitude of this man's desk, and the wooden sheathing is split in places. The cracks in the tubes give a curious querulous sound to every voice that ascends or descends through them. A feud of long standing exists between the office boys and others who speak from the upper floor and those who speak from the lower story. A pleasant word never ascends or descends. All the harshness of inflection that accompanies the harsh words is strangely multiplied by the cracked condition of the resonant speaking tubes, and this man of naturally peaceable inclinations has to sit and hear it all.

Unfortunately his is a somewhat sensitive and sympathetic nature. It is impossible for him to remain undisturbed when this continuous war of words is going on through the speaking tubes. A provocative voice from above causes him to side with the floor far beneath him, and the reply that comes up grieves him, and he thinks that the upper floor has been assailed with unpardonable violence. Then there is a rattling exchange of warlike expressions in angry tones—made more angry to the ear by the cracked speaking tubes—and the man of peace groans and sighs for the quiet of a lodge in some vast wilderness. He has heard these savage exchanges so long and so continually that his conception as to the sound of the male human voice is like that which comes to his ears through these diabolical speaking tubes.

This has been going on year after year, and the feud shows no signs of abatement. Its effect on the helpless man of peace is deplorable. He feels constantly as if he were a party to a never ending quarrel. He goes out to his luncheon feeling like a man who has just been engaged in a riot, and he does not enjoy his food. He scolds his most obliging waiter without cause and gives him an increased tip by way of apology. When he goes home, he kisses his wife and children in a perfunctory way and is irritable at the dinner table. His wife says sadly, "My dear, you are working too hard." He is not working too hard, but he is ashamed to tell what ails him, for he knows that it would be difficult for even his considerate helpmeet to understand the effect of the continuous speaking tube strife on his nervous system. So he changes the subject and endeavors to make amends by his best behavior. His wife notices that his playfulness is forced and is a sorry imitation of the genuine article, and this is more alarming to her than his irritableness.—New York Sun.

Porcine Longevity In Georgia.

HALE METHOD OF PAINLESS FILLING.

NEW DEPARTURE IN DENTISTRY!

DR. PORTER HAS RETURNED for the purpose of advertising the

"Hale Method of Painless Filling."

Absolutely painless without Chloroform, Gas, Ether or Cocaine.

OFFICE IN SUNDERLAND'S BUILDING, - - - VIRGINIA ST., RENO.

Here are a Few Testimonials from Citizens Who have Already Tried the Method:

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—It affords me pleasure to say that the Hale method of painless filling opens a new era in the dental world. After having several very sensitive cavities filled by you with gold and amalgam with gratifying results, I am of the opinion that the method is far beyond competition.
PATRICK HENRY.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—In answer to your request for my candid opinion as to the Hale method of painless filling, I beg to state that I went to one of Dr. Leek's finest operators in San Francisco, and he filled several teeth for me with more or less pain; but when he came to the one you have just filled, it was simply impossible for me to endure the torture, consequently I asked him to stop, which he did. I thought I would be obliged to have the tooth extracted. I wish to state that in five minutes after you commenced to operate there was positively no pain; it felt just as if you were cutting a piece of wood. I am so highly pleased with the manner in which you filled the tooth that I feel it but just to express my appreciation of the method. It is all you claim for it.
CHARLES HOPE.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—I have had teeth extracted before by so-called painless methods, but you are the only operator who has extracted teeth for me without pain. Your method of extracting surpasses my most sanguine expectations.
MRS. H. PRENTISS.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to state that I am thoroughly convinced of the excellence of your method. I expected to suffer dreadfully having the cavity filled, as it was the worst one I had to have done. In about five minutes after you began to work on it I was satisfied that it would not hurt, which it did not during the entire operation. The tooth you extracted is one I have been dreading for eight years, and after consulting dentists in Sacramento, who advised me not to have it removed, as the ordeal might prove injurious to my health and also disfigure my face. You extracted the tooth without a particle of pain, and I will have no further dread of the dental chair, providing I can obtain the Hale Method.
MARY E. FLECKENSTEIN.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—After using Hale's Painless Method as administered by you in the extraction of teeth, I can bear testimony that the results are satisfactory, and that teeth can be extracted painless by said method.
Respectfully yours,
HENRY J. NEYLAND.

Dr. Porter—DEAR SIR:—I believe that the Hale Painless Method of filling is destined to lead the world in its especial field of usefullness. I am particularly impressed with it, owing to the fact that one does not lose consciousness while having teeth filled, and at the same time does not suffer a particle of pain. You are at liberty to refer any one who contemplates having sensative teeth filled to me.

NEVADA STATE JOURNAL.

TUESDAY, MAY 23, 1893.

AN INCOME TAX.

The question of a graduated income tax on all license in excess of $10,000 per year is being agitated in the eastern states and is being advocated by the St. Louis Republic, which says:

"The New York Tribune in its Washington dispatches takes the suggestion as a text and summarizes the votes that have been had in congress on the proposition to levy an income tax since the war. In doing so it discovers, what was pretty generally known before, that at frequent intervals during the past twenty years the Democrats in congress have gone on record almost solidly in favor of it.

"One fact which the Tribune regards as significant at this time is that Messrs. Carlisle and Herbert, now members of Mr. Cleveland's cabinet, are on record as favoring an income tax, and that the following leading Democrats who are members of the incoming congress are now on record in its favor, namely, Messrs. Blackburn, Bland, Breckinridge of Kentucky, Breckinridge of Arkansas, Crain, Crisp, Culberson; Hatch, Hooker, McMillin, Mills, Money, Oates, Outhwaite, Sayers, Stone of Kentucky, H. G. Turner, Wheeler, and Wilson of West Virginia. In the fiftieth congress the following Democrats, who are still members of the senate, voted in favor of the graded income tax proposed by Senator Reagan of Texas as an amendment to the tariff bill then pending: Bate, Berry, Blackburn, Butler, Cockrell, Coke, Colquitt, Daniel, Faulkner, George, Harris, Vance, Vest, Voorhees and Walthall. Only one Democrat who is now a member of the senate (Pugh) voted against it. It is plainly evident that the Republic was correct in saying that Secretary Carlisle can count on the nearly solid support of his party in congress in favor of a measure that will put into the treasury all the gold that any financier or capitalist can desire to see there. An income tax of 10 per cent, or even 5 per cent, on all abnormal incomes, payable in gold, would tender it certain that not only that our profligate expenditures of pensions will be met, but that there will be at all times in the treasury plenty of gold to pay the face value of silver certificates issued on silver bullion lying idle in the treasury.

"The pretense that an income tax cannot be collected is idle. It is collected without difficulty in Great Britain, and was collected with no great difficulty in this country at the time it was on the federal statute books. It will be no more easily evaded than any other tax, and will probably be more closely collected than taxes on personal property now are."

WHAT DEMOCRATIC LEADERS DESIRE TO DO.

It is given out that there are five things which discreet Democratic leaders purpose doing when congress convenes. These are the repeal of federal election laws, the levy of an income tax, the repeal of the Sherman act and of the 10 per cent tax on state bank currency, and a revision of the tariff. It is believed that the president in his message will recommend each and all of those measures.

There will doubtless be little if any objection on the part of the majority to the repeal of the federal election laws and the revision of the tariff, but the income tax on state banks of issue may meet with opposition. The great battle, however, is expected to be on the Sherman bullion purchase act, which the silver men declare shall not be repealed unless an act more favorable to silver is passed. Danger of a division of the silver men on this question is appreciated. The whole country outside of Wall street wants more money. Business is depressed, the prices of farm and other products have touched bedrock and it is believed there will be no reaction until more money is put in circulation. Those who advocate the repeal of the 10 per cent tax on state bank currency say that the abolition of that tax will relieve the stringency in the money market at once, as every state can then authorize banks to issue notes upon such terms as the legislature may prescribe. This tempting bait, it is feared, may allure some representatives from the South and West from their allegiance to the silver cause and possibly get them to vote for the repeal of the Sherman act. The straight-out, free coinage men contend that the bank notes will not be taken at par beyond the state line unless they are redeemable in gold or silver coin. Therefore to make money more plentiful the mints must be opened to silver as well as gold. This is the only remedy for the dull times which prevail all over the civilized world as well as all paper money which circulates at par is redeemable in coin, and if there is not enough specie for that purpose people will have no confidence in the bank notes.

The second clause of the Irish home rule bill conferring authority on the Irish legislators to enact laws has been passed in the committee of the house of commons by a vote of 287 to 225. The amendment provides that the supreme power of the imperial parliamen shall remain undiminished by any proviso of the home rule bill. The debate on the amendment was acrimonious, the Conservatives opposing the amendment.

It is stated that English capitalists have lost as much money by the failure of Australian banks as France did from the failure of the Panama canal scheme.

CORBETT HAS RETURNED.

The Trial Trip of the New York a Complete Success.

PRESBYTERIANS OBJECT.

Exaggerated Reports of the San Francisco Unemployed.

CHAMPION CORBETT.

He Receives a Hearty Welcome in San Francisco.

Special to the JOURNAL.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—The champion pugilist James J. Corbett, arrived at his home in this city to-day. It was his first appearance here since his battle in New Orleans and he was heartily welcomed. His mother and other members of the family and a large delegation from the Olympic athletic club of which Corbett was formerly instructor, met him at Oakland and escorted him across the bay.

To-night Corbett and his company appeared at the California theatre in his play "Gentleman Jack." Great crowds of people were on the street as the procession headed by a brass band and the Olympic club, passed, and when they arrived in front of the theatre the street was crowded by admirers who gave him a rousing welcome. Corbett was well received during the performance and floral offerings were numerous. One piece presented by the Olympic club was twelve feet high and was a handsome and costly design.

Presbyterian Assembly.

Special to the JOURNAL.]

WASHINGTON, May 22.—In the Presbyterian assembly to-day at the afternoon session the report of the committee of Sabbath observance came up for consideration. President Wardfield of Lafayette college proposed an additional recommendation that the third Sunday in June be set apart as a day when sermons should be preached in all churches and prayers be offered in behalf of the effort to keep the World's Fair closed.

Rev. Dr. McCauley of Dayton, O., offered another addition, to-wit: That in case the Sunday closing rule should be violated that the exhibit of the Presbyterian church be removed.

Several recommendations together with these were adopted.

In the progress of discussion Rev. W. S. Jerome of Pontiac, Mich., opposed the removal of the Presbyterian exhibit in case the Sunday law is violated. He opposed it for the reason that if the fair kept open on Sunday there was all the more reason why the exhibit should be where people could see something good. Mr. Jerome was overwhelmingly in the minority, he and Rev. T. Rennick of Geneva, N. J., being the only two against withdrawal.

The San Francisco Unemployed.

Special to the JOURNAL.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22.—Mayor Ellert is in receipt of a letter from C. C. Rittenhouse of Hastings, Neb., calling attention to a circular forwarded to him in which it is represented that from 6,000 to 10,000 people in the city are in a destitute and starving condition and appealing to the public for financial aid. The circular further tells of the enforced idleness of thousands, and then directs national notice to the miserable sanitary condition of Chinatown, declaring that all contributions would be devoted to its disinfection.

To-day Mayor Ellert summoned to his office W. M. Willey, president of the organization known as the San Francisco Unemployed, and called him to account in severe terms for the authorship or the circular. The mayor roundly denounced Willey's assertions as untrue and harmful. Willey, who is a professional agitator, claimed that no money for contributions have so far been received, though the circular has been sent broadcast throughout the United States. Mayor Ellert notified the mayor of Hastings that San Francisco is amply able to take care of its unemployed, of whom there is no unusual number.

The Fastest Armored Cruiser in the World.

Special to the JOURNAL.]

WASHINGTON, May 22.—The cruiser New York crossed the finish line this afternoon at 1:41, having made the marvelous speed of twenty-one knots. This record gives the United States the fastest armored cruising vessel in the world and the Cramps a premium of $200,000. Even the records of the famous Blake and Blenheim are surpassed, the former having made only 19.7 on her trial trip, and the latter has never yet been tried over a measured course.

Army Officers for Indian Agencies.

Special to the JOURNAL.]

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Upon the request of Secretary Smith, the secretary of war has furnished the interior department with a list of army officers from which he recommends that selections be made for Indian agents. Secretary Smith said in cases where the present agents were inefficient, or for any other reason unsatisfactory, they will be displaced by army officers. It is the purpose to place an army officer in charge of every agency except those where the Indians are in an advanced state of civilization.

SPOKE AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

Mrs Kate Tupper Gilpin Formerly of Reno Addressed the Woman's Congress.

The World's Fair correspondent of the S. F. Chronicle has this to say of Mrs. Kate Tupper Gilpin, formerly principal of the Normal Department of the State University in this city:

"California women have distinguished themselves in many ways this week during the session of the women's congress. Mrs. Kate Tupper Gilpin of Los Angeles delivered an address before the congress Friday on 'Missionary Work of the Unitarian Church on the Pacific Coast,' and made a very pleasing impression. She also took part in an argument over the justice of the Sorosis Club of New York in blackballing Lotta Crabtree at an informal reception, and it is said her remarks elicited storms of applause. She roundly scored the Sorosis Club for its snobbish actions, and from the enthusiasm with which her words were received it is quite evident that her sentiments were those of the majority of ladies present."

Specimen Cases.

S. H. Clifford, New Cassel, Wis., was troubled with neuralgia and rheumatism, his stomach was disordered, his liver was affected to an alarming degree, appetite fell away, and he was terribly reduced in flesh and strength. Three bottles of Electric Bitters cured him.

Edward Shepherd, Harrisburg, Ill., had a running sore on his leg of eight years' standing. Used three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and his leg is sound and well. John Speaker, Catawba, O., had five large fever sores on his leg and doctors said he was incurable. One bottle of Electric Bitters and one box Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured him entirely. Sold at S. J. Hodgkinson's drug store.

STATE COURSE OF STUDY.

What is Being Done for Nevada's Schools.

The committee on state course of study for the public schools met in Virginia last Saturday for the purpose of continuing and, if possible, completing the work begun at meetings held in Carson some months ago. Two meetings were held in Carson to consider the matter of a uniform course of study and needed school legislation. A portion of the needed school legislation then agreed upon was enacted into law, with some modifications, by the last legislature—uniform examinations and state teachers' institutes—both of which acts were drawn up by Professor Bray of this city, while other portions, notably that of the repeal of the May trustee election law and the school library act, which were unanimously favored at said meeting, failed of enactment in the legislature.

After much discussion in the Carson meetings as to what it was best to put into a general course of study and as to the amount of outlining that should be done, it was resolved to make the Illinois state course of study the basis upon which to build here. Copies of the courses of study for several states were thereupon procured by the state superintendent and furnished to each member for inspection and comparison. For several weeks the members have been working separately, more or less, endeavoring to get up a course of study that would, if properly carried out, place the schools of Nevada abreast of the age The state superintendent, with commendable zeal, has been in active sympathy with this movement, and it is believed that it will result in much good to the schools.

The Virginia meeting took up the work so long under consideration, and partially completed the first eight grades. It will need some additions and revisions, but a good beginning has been made. The members are doubtless wise to make haste slowly in this matter, as a good course cannot be constructed in a day. Take plenty of time and get a good one, then see that its main features are thoroughly carried out.

The school world has for some years been running to seed in "methods." A halt has been called and the matter that is taught and that ought to be taught is now uppermost in consideration. It is refreshing to learn that the Nevada teachers are among the foremost in readiness to consider both methods and matter.

NEW CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH.

Its Cost, Style, and Appearance.

We regret that lack of data prevented our giving at an earlier day a full account of the dedicatory services at the new Congregational church on the 14th inst. The sermon by Dr. McLean was a masterly setting forth of the advantages of churches and religious institutions generally, to communities. The financial statement presented by the building committee showed the total cost of the building to be $12,500; the sum $6,250 or half of the total cost having been raised before the day of the dedication. On that day the sum of $1,400 was pledged in subscriptions and this, together with $2,000 pledged by the church building society, leaves the sum of $2,800 still unprovided for

Both the pastor and people have worked hard and made a great deal of sacrifice in providing a house of worship that is handsome, commodious, and an honor to our beautiful town

We are assured that a generous public will assist in liquidating the remaining indebtedness and thus placing a worthy institution on a basis of permanency.

The edifice is Gothic in style. The plan was furnished by Architect Price of Philadelphia—Its seating capacity is about 500—it has a fine basement which will be used for Sunday school and social meetings. The woodwork in the auditorium is finished in walnut and cherry. It is well lighted and ventilated and presents a handsome appearance

THE LATEST TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Subscribers East, South and North get it in the "Journal."

The latest telegraph news received here by newspapers comes in the Virginia, Nev., Chronicle, one day ahead of all the other papers. What's the matter with the Reno papers?—Eureka Sentinel.

JOURNAL subscribers at Eureka and at all points on the Central Pacific railroad east to Wells, say they get the latest telegraph news in its columns, and twelve hours ahead of the evening papers. The JOURNAL goes east the morning it is published in the same mail with the California and Nevada evening papers of the day before. If any newspaper in Nevada gets more Associated Press news than the JOURNAL there must be discrimination, as it pays for night dispatches about as much as the evening papers pay for day dispatches, and everybody who patronizes the telegraph knows that its night rates per word are much less than the day rates.

The Reno Real Estate and Investment Company has let a contract to James Mayberry to excavate a cellar 47 by 80 feet for the new two-story brick building which they are to erect on their lot adjoining Powning's building and Quinn's hardware store on Virginia street.

W. C. Watson and J. J. Evans are expected here soon to decide upon the relative merits of Reno and Carson as a location for a branch of the Keeley institute. Carson purposes offering inducements for the location of the institute in that city.

WEATHER CROP BULLETIN.

The Bureau's Report of Temperature and Precipitation.

WASHINGTON, D. C, May 16, 1893.

TEMPERATURE

The week ending May 15th has been the most favarable of the season in the spring-wheat region, and in the states of the upper Mississippi and Missouri valleys, in Kansas, Indian Territory, and nothern Texas. The temperature was slightly in excess in the central valleys, Lake region, and New England, and over the central and northern Rocky Mountain districts. The week was slightly cooler than usual from Pennsylvania and Ohio southward to Florida, including the east portion of the cotton region, the cool nights being reported as unfavorable to the crop in South Carolina. It was also cooler than usual in western Texas and Arizona, while about the normal temperature prevailed on the Pacific coast, but in the interior of California the temperature was above the normal. The continued cool weather during the preceeding month over the agricultural districts east of the Rocky Mountains, coupled with the excessive moisture generally throughout the central valleys and northwest, has left the season from a week to ten days late in most sections, although farm work has been rapidly pushed during the past week in the principal grain states.

PRECIPITATION.

The rainfall during the past week was greater than usual from the lower Ohio and lower Missouri valleys southward to the Gulf coast and thence westward over Texas, except in portions of Louisiana and southeastern Arkansas, where the rainfall was about normal. The week was relatively dry in the states on the Atlantic coast, although general rains are now reported from the Atlantic coast states. The week was also relatively dry in the upper Mississippi Valley, and thence Westward to the Pacific coast, although in extreme northern Minnesota the rainfall was slightly in excess. Drought is reported in southwestern Nebraska, and reports indicate that rain is needed throughout the state. Very heavy rains occurred in the interior of Texas on the 12th, which resulted in some injury to the cotton crop.

Some injury has resulted from overflow in Arkansas and Louisiana, and the river is still raising south of Helena, Ark., although it is stationary at Memphis this morning, and the Arkansas river is falling at Little Rock.

A telegram just received from Vicksburg states that "levee broke three miles north of Grand lake, Arkansas, at 8 P. M. 15th, the break being 300 feet wide and from eight to ten feet deep

FEDERATION OF MINERS.

One of the Strongest Labor Organizations in the Country.

Last week delegates from the Miners' Unions of Montana, Idaho, Nevada, Utah, Colorado and South Dakota met at Butte city, Montana, and organized the Western Federation of Miners. Nearly 50,000 miners are represented in this federation, which now ranks as one of the strongest labor organizations in the country. J. W. Gillelan of Butte was elected president, T. Maulin of Butte, secretary, and John McLeod of South Dakota, chairman of the executive board.

The federation adopted resolutions urging free silver coinage; opposing imported contract labor; opposing the repeal of the Sherman silver purchase act and the importation of armed forces in cases of strikes; appealing to workingmen not to join state militia organizations; demanding the restoration of the mineral lands in the mining states to the people; condemning the Russian extradition treaty; approving the supreme court ruling in the Geary exclusion act and demanding an enforcement of the law, and demanding the election of United States senators by direct vote of the people.

As Willie McLaughlin was walking along Second street yesterday he noticed the dry grass in the vacant lot on the corner of Second and Sierra streets to be on fire, and quickly procured a bucket of water and put the flames out. A few moments' delay and the fire would have worked its way to the wooden building adjoining and another conflagration would probably have resulted. The fire was started by a lighted cigar or cigarette being thrown upon the grass.

SHERMAN CATECHISED.

The Great Goldbug Afraid of the Populists.

Justice—"Stand up, John Sherman; you are to be questioned regarding your actions on finance; Mr. Goose Quill proceed with the examination."

Goose Quill—"Mr. Sherman, please state to the court and jury, what occurred at the meeting of yourself and Mr. Shylock. I refer to the meeting held in Mr. Rothschilds' private office on Wall street."

Sherman—"I decline to answer. I am Mr. Rothschild's confidential agent; I shape financial legislation at Washington for his benefit. It would be a breach of etiquette and good faith for me to disclose what passed between Mr. Shylock and myself; we are both sworn to the utmost secrecy."

G. Q.—"Do you consider it good policy, Mr. Sherman, for a senator who is paid to represent the people of Ohio and the United States in the senate chamber, to be the confidential agent of the Shylocks and to shape legislation wholly for their benefit?"

"S."—"I hope you don't think I go to the senate for my health; $5,000 a year don't pay my campaign expenses. It did not take me long to find out that the Shylock agents are the best paid men in Washington; so you can readily see how it happened that I became a millionaire"

G. Q.—"Are you not afraid Mr. Sherman, that the people will find out how they have been betrayed, and that there will be a day of reckoning?"

S.—"We have succeeded in keeping the dear people in a hypnotic condition for the past twenty-five years. All we have to do each campaign is to employ a few brass bands; shout tariff in the north and free trade in the south, and one or the other of our candidates goes in with a rush This gives us another lease on the people for four years more. It is the most improved and effectual form of slavery ever discovered. Rothschild is monarch of all he surveys, but he is beginning to fear the Populists."

G. Q.—"Don't you think the Populists are going to seriously interfere with the future plans of the Shylocks?"

S.—"To be frank with you, I am afraid of them; we have tried to buy their leaders, but without success. A great many Populists are heavily mortgaged. We have threatened them with foreclosure unless they returned to the two old parties, but it won't work. We have subsidized the Democratic Republican press to ridicule them without mercy, but it only tends to increase their strength. I fear we will have to resort to violent measures, and I fear the result."

G. Q.—"I have a cablegram from M. Rothschilds to you. He demands that you immediately call President Cleveland and his cabinet together, and have an extra session of congres without delay. A financial earthquake is at hand. Make all of Count Von Baron Rothschilds' securities a full legal tender for 25 per cent more than their face value; have the government guarantee the interest: don't put in any exceptions——"

S.—"Give me that message immediately; it is confidential. If Rothschilds knew that cablegram was read in court, I would be a ruined man."

G. Q.—"I beg your pardon, Mr. Sherman. I did not notice the word confidential top line. Owing to the importance of the message you will now be excused." F.

A YEAR WITHOUT A SUMMER.

Frost and Snow in May, June, July and August.

Apropos of the cold weather and backward season, as subscriber sends the JOURNAL the following which shows that there has been a summerless year within the memory of persons now living:

"January and February of 18[illegible] were spring-like. March was cold and stormy. Vegetation had gotten well along in April, when real winter set in. Sleet and snow fell on seven different days in May. In June there was killing frost or snow every night but three. The snow was five inches deep for several days in succession in the interior of New York, and from ten inches to three feet in Vermont and Maine. July was cold and frosty. Ice formed as thick as window panes in every one of the New England states. August was still worse. Ice formed nearly an inch in thickness and killed nearly every green thing in the United States and in Europe. In the spring of 1817 corn which had been kept over from the crop of 1815 sold for from $5 to $10 a bushel, the buyers purchasing for seed. On May 10, 1835, snow fell a foot in Jamestown, Va., and was piled up in huge drifts in most of the northern states."

A Word About Press Clubs.

Life is sorry to see the New York Press club engaged in a scheme that savors of blackmailing. A few of the members of the club are reputable newspaper men, and their connection with it enables the organization to come at the business and general public of New York with a scheme apparently backed up by the entire newspaper guild.

The demands made in behalf of the approaching fair are not actually accompanied by threats of newspaper retribution, but in most cases the person approached is made generous by an undefined dread of what may happen to him if he isn't. With the demand is coupled the assurance that the Press club is a philanthropic institution, which takes care of its members in sickness and buries them when dead.

This is a humiliating reflection on the members of the newspaper profession. The great majority of them and the most reputable of them do not belong to the Press club at all. They are self respecting and make their own provision for sickness and death, or, at all events, do not appeal to the general public, directly or indirectly, to do those things which every real man is expected to do for himself.

There is a growing knowledge among the public that the Press club idea, not only in New York, but elsewhere, is strongly worked, and for their own advantage, by men who either are not newspaper men at all or whose connection with the press is very slight. It will be a good thing when this knowledge becomes general.—Life.

Pneumatic Caissons For a Building.

Pneumatic caissons are being used in preparing the foundation for the new office building which is being erected on lower Broadway by the Manhattan Life Insurance company. This structure is being built on a lot 122 by 67 feet in size and at a place where a rock bottom cannot be reached without passing through quicksand full of water. Fifteen of these caissons will be employed, four circular and 11 rectangular. The latter vary in size from 25½ feet in length by 21½ feet in width to 13 feet square. The largest of the circular caissons is 15 feet in diameter and the smallest 10 feet. They are made by riveting together steel plates, angle bars and beams into boxes from 8 to 10 feet in depth, with a top thoroughly braced with steel beams to support the superposed loads. All the rivets on the sides have countersunk holes on the outside so as to diminish the friction which arises when the caissons are sinking. All the openings in the top are carried up through the masonry which is laid on top of the caisson and are provided with the same valves that are used in subaqueous works. It is stated that these caissons will be the first ever employed in building construction.

The Rattan In the Public Schools.

A little boy of 8 years attending a primary public school in Charlestown was rattaned by his teacher, went home, was taken with convulsions the next day and died within a week after. The attempt is now made to show that the child's death was caused by the shock and fright of the whipping. It will be difficult, and probably will be impossible, to show this conclusively. But it should not be necessary to prove fatal results of whipping in our public schools in order to bring that method of discipline under condemnation. The rattan has no place in the equipment of a competent teacher, and those who cannot teach without it have no place in the corps of highly paid and presumptively capable teachers in the Boston public schools.—Boston Commonwealth.

Washington's Last Letter.

The last letter ever written by George Washington has just come to light, and it is to be sold. George W. Childs has long been credited with possessing the last letter, the one in his collection having been written six days before his death, but the one now to be sold proves to have been indited the very day previous to the great general's passing away. It bears the date of "Mount Vernon, 13th Dec'r, 1799." The subject matter is far from romantic and without any historical interest, consisting of some characteristically practical suggestions as to cattle pens, but being the farewell document of the "Father of His Country" it possesses an undying interest for autograph collectors.—Philadelphia Record.

Received Many Stamps.

A so called land syndicate of Salt Lake City advertised in many eastern newspapers during the winter that it was about to open an addition to the territory's capital and would send a deed to a lot therein upon receipt of a 2-cent postage stamp. A recent personal letter from one of the Utah World's fair commissioners to a friend in this city brings the interesting information that the syndicate was rewarded by an immense invoice of postage stamps from all parts of the country. The government stepped in and indicted the syndicate, which has "skipped for parts unknown."—New York Sun.

A Demonstration In Florence.

It is a fact of rather curious interest that Queen Victoria's oriental attendant, the portly and turbaned Hindoo munshi who teaches her majesty Hindoostanee, attracted far more attention when the royal party arrived in Florence than did the queen of Great Britain and Ireland and empress of India herself. When the enthusiastic Florentine crowd saw the gorgeous Indian sitting in state in the royal carriage, they saluted him by throwing up their hats and uttering cries of welcome.—Exchange.

Too Much of a Risk.

Secretary of State Gresham will be commended for his refusal to allow the original drafts of the constitution of the United States to be taken to Chicago for exhibition during the World's fair. The papers are the most precious possession of the government, and despite all the care and protection that could be given them away from the state department there would be a risk.—Columbus Dispatch.

"I have been afflicted with biliousness and constipation for fifteen years; first one and then another preparation was suggested to me and tried but to no purpose. At last a friend recommended August Flower. I took i according to directions and its effects were wonderful, relieving me of those disagreeable stomach pains which I had been troubled with so long. Words cannot describe the admiration in which I hold your August Flower—it has given me a new lease of life, which before was a burden. Such a medicine is a benefaction to humanity, and its good qualities and wonderful merits should be made known to everyone suffering with dyspepsia or biliousness

SUMMONS.

IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF THE STATE of Nevada, in and for Washoe county—The state of Nevada sends to George Ferguson greeting: You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by O. C. Ross and R. H. Leigh as plaintiff in the District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the county of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this Summons (exclusive of day of service), if served in said county, or twenty days if served out of said county but within said District, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to prayer of said complaint. The action is brought to recover the judgment and decree of the court forever quieting the title of the plaintiff in and to the east ½ of the S W ¼ and east ½ of N W ¼, and west ½ of S E ¼ and west ½ of N E ¼ of Sec. 23, in T. 23 N., R 18 E., M. D. B. M.

The plaintiff claim uninterrupted adverse possession thereof, under a claim of right for more than seventeen years, and the title thereto in fee, and that defendant claims an estate or interest therein adverse to the plaintiffs; and this action is brought to annul such adverse claim and to quiet plaintiff's title to said lands and premises, and to perpetually enjoin defendant from ever asserting any claim to said premises adverse to the plaintiffs, and for costs.

All of which will more fully appear from the complaint, which is on file in the office of the clerk of said court, at Reno, in said county, and to which you are especially referred. And you are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer said complaint the said plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said court, at Reno, this 29th day of April, A. D. 1893.

May, Sweet May.

In the scented soft May breams
Forests don their kirtles green;
All is melting, nothing freezes,
Flushes with auroral sheen;
Waking,
Breaking,
Hearts laugh out, with love aglow,
May, sweet May, will have it so.

Wintry bosoms, ne'er so dreary
But the sunshine thrills them through;
Heavy spirits, ne'er so weary
But are twinkling in their dew;
Laughing,
Quaffing,
Life in measure full, I trow,
May, sweet May, will have it so.

No more wax and wane and changing
Let there be in love that's true;
Seasonless and never ranging,
Such, dear love, my love for you,
Yearning,
Burning,
Or, as brook in even flow,
May, sweet May, will have it so.

—Ulrich V. Lichtenstein.

A Scene In the Attorney General's Office.

Representative Wilson of West Virginia, whose distinguished position in the house entitles him to the utmost respect and consideration at the hands of any Democratic official, entered the office of the attorney general. The room was crowded with applicants for offices, and Mr. Olney was very much harrassed. Mr. Wilson stepped forward to the attorney general's desk. Mr. Olney turned savagely upon him.

"Sir," he said, "you have come up out of your turn. You are doing an injustice to those who have been waiting here, and you will have to go back to the foot of the line and await your turn."

Mr. Wilson, who is an exceedingly mild mannered gentleman, looked at the attorney general in amazement. He did not show his temper, however, but with chiding politeness inquired: "Did I hear you aright? Did you say I must go back and await my turn?"

"I did, sir," replied the attorney general.

"Very well, sir," said the West Virginian haughtily, "I shall go back, but I shall not return. When you desire to see me, you can send for me."

It was not until Mr. Wilson had departed that Attorney General Olney learned who it was that he had affronted. —Washington Cor. Cleveland Plain Dealer.
